

AGRAM

variety composition of linseed designed for seed and edible oil production, for healthy nutrition, in bakery industry

- alpha linolenic acid content up to 30%
- linoleic acid content up to 40%
- very low content of cyanogenic glycosides
- the highest content of lignans SECO
- middle maturing variety with blue flower colour
- brown seed colour
- high seed yield
- iodine number 165
- lower to medium high stem length
- high resistance to lodging
- higher root and stem base resistance to diseases

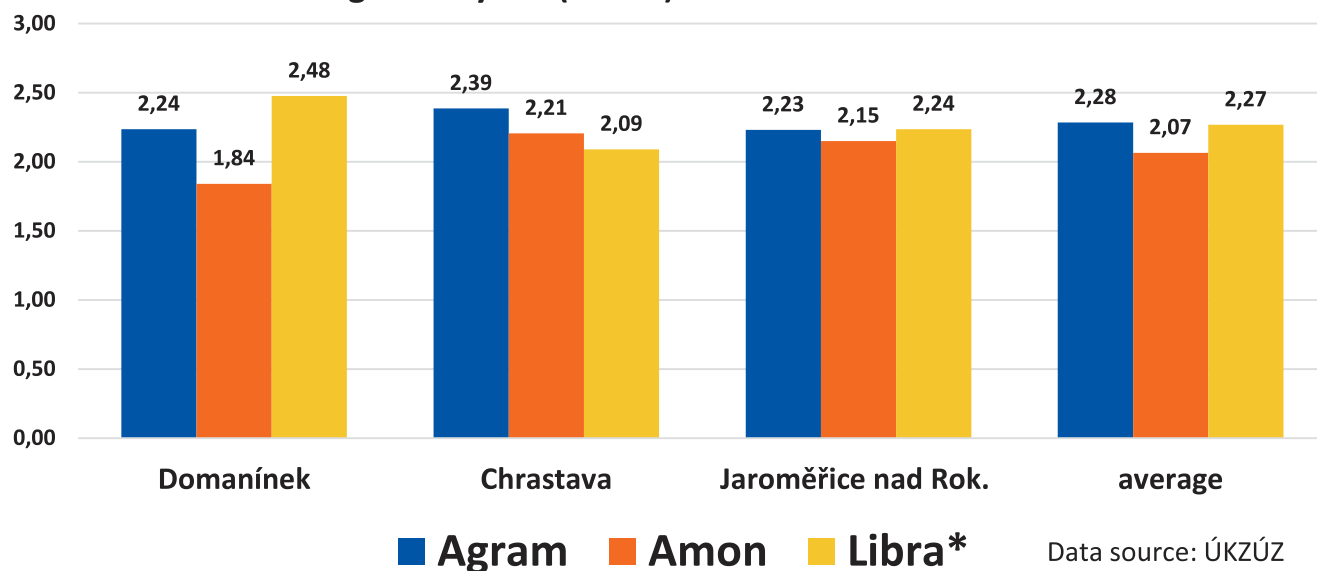

AGRITEC, Research, Breeding and Services Ltd
Zemědělská 2520/16, 787 01 ŠUMPERK
CZECH REPUBLIC

Contact person: Antonín Ponížil

Phone: +420 724 057 240, E-mail: ponizil@agritec.cz

AGRAM

Average seed yield (t.ha⁻¹) in 2016 and 2017

Priorities of linseed AGRAM

- a favourable ratio of essential fatty acids in oil

Growth risks

- not significant

Registration

- 2017

Economic use

- variety useful for seed and edible oil production
- for healthy nutrition
- for bakery industry for baking bread
- dough blending component

