LEGATO ExCom meeting (restricted to Executive Committee members)

COMING TO THE MEETING

The LEGATO Stakeholder meeting n°4 will take place at Wellness Hotel Diana in Velké Losiny, Czech Republic.

There are equally convenient direct flights from European capitals from/to Prague, or scheduled and charter flights from/to Brno or Ostrava airport.

Flights from/to Ostrava: <http://www.airport-ostrava.cz/en/page-map-of-destination/>

Flights from/to Brno: <http://www.brno-airport.cz/en/flight-information/destination-map/>

From all airports goes direct public transport to the main railway station.

Travelling from/to Prague

In Prague there is a bus signed AE (Airport Express) linking the airport with the main railway station called “Hlavni nadrazi” in 35 minutes. They go every 20–30 minutes and cost 60 CZK (tickets at the driver, only cash, only CZK). Another option is to take a public bus (ticket in the ticket machine at the bus station, one-way adult 32 CZK). Bus 119 (connection with metro line A) and bus 100 (connection with metro line B), but they stop at each bus station. The ride takes around one hour to get the railway station and you have to transfer to the metro and change to the metro line C. Map of transport from/to Prague airport (buses, metro):

<http://www.prg.aero/Files/ostatni/transpourtmap/>. All tickets are available also at the airport at the public transport desk (called MHD) in Arrivals hall in Terminal 1 or Terminal 2 (desk open 7:00-22:00).

Travelling from/to Brno

From Brno Airport goes direct bus linking the airport with the railway station, from where direct trains go to Zábřeh or Šumperk. The bus E76 goes around 20 minutes and operate between 5:00 to 23:00, the bus N89 operates between 23:00 to 5:00. Tickets are available in the ticket machine or at the driver. The price per adult one-way ticket is 25 CZK.

Travelling from/to Ostrava

From Ostrava airport run direct train (S4) linking airport with railway station Ostrava or Bohumín, from where direct trains go to Zábřeh. The railway station is located next to the terminal. You can buy tickets in the train. To the Ostrava city go also buses nr. 910 333, 820 150 and 880 670. The bus stations for links 910 333, 820 150 are located in front of “Arrivals” terminal. The bus station for link 880 670 is located in front of the railway terminal.

Trains

From Prague and Ostrava run direct trains to Zábřeh (station “Zábřeh na Moravě”), then you have to change the train to get Šumperk city or take a taxi. From Brno goes some direct trains to the Šumperk or trains with direction to Česká Třebová, where you have to change the train to Zábřeh. The trains provided by the Czech Railways (second-class carriages) are without reservation, but if you choose RegioJet trains, there is mandatory seat reservation (<https://www.regiojet.com/en/>). All travel information you can find at <http://jizdnirady.idnes.cz/vlakyautobusymhdvse/spojeni/> (English and German options available).

The hotel offers free shuttle from/to Šumperk to get to the Wellness Hotel Diana.
